

Dr. MAKISHIMA Karen

Minister for Digital

Minister in Charge of Administrative Reform

Minister of State for Regulatory Reform

Date of Birth : November 1,1976

Place of Birth : Kanagawa Prefecture

Member, House of Representatives (2012~)

Kanagawa 17th District

(Odawara-city, Hadano-city, Minamiashigara-city, Nakai-machi, Ooi-machi, Matsuda-machi, Yamakita-machi, Kaisei-machi, Hakone-machi, Manazuru-machi, Yugawara-machi)

Party Affiliation: Liberal Democratic Party (LDP)

<Education>

-Graduated Yokohama Futaba High School.

-Graduated International Christian University, Social Science.

-M.A. in political management at George Washington University.

-Women's Campaign School at Yale University.

-Ph.D, Graduate School of International Christian University, (political science and public administration)

-Worked at NHK (Japan Broadcasting Corporation) Washington D.C. Office while studying in U.S., as a coordinator for documentary programs.

Formerly:

Director, Youth Division, LDP

Parliamentary Vice-Minister of Cabinet Office:

Financial Service Agency, Local Revitalization, and Disaster Prevention

Chief Secretary, Digital Nation LDP Special Committee

Chief Secretary, Headquarters for Overcoming Population Decline and Regional Revitalization, LDP

Chief Secretary, Special Committee on the Promotion of Social Business, LDP

Chief Secretary, Research Commission on International Cooperation, LDP